Wednesday,

Cloudy so day, stayed with Father & wife in setting & watching the old gear out, & then this morning helped mother about cooking & went into the garden a few minutes this afternoon, mother has been about the house a good part of the day, & kept the house at home.

Thursday Jan 21st

A pouring rain-storm today. Have been at home all day, spending time in reading, also writing to Mattie.

Friday

We washed the washing. Mr. West & wife called this afternoon, went to mother's & saw a few moments, also to Father this evening, while, George Brown & Anne Mattie were there. They came home with me & made a short call. They & her father have been in awhile. It has been very pleasant today.

Saturday

Very pleasant today. We have been out in the morning. There has been a wind & we have been out a few moments, have been down to the river this afternoon. There & have another fine start for Father this afternoon & am going to sleep with George while she is gone.

Wednesday Jan 3rd

Quite pleasant to-day. am at Sister Ransom's have been baking pies & bread. Lizzie has gone off to spend the day, have been down home to practice my lesson this afternoon, am going to stop at home to night as father Ransom & Lizzie will be to meeting.

Thursday

Rather blustering to-day. Went to the sister house this morning stopped awhile afternoon came home & practiced awhile, going to stop there to night. Sister Ransom came home to night, but not expect to be in till to-morrow night.

Friday

Pleasant to-day. Stopped & helped Lizzie do up the work this morning, came home & practiced my lesson & helped mother some about cooking. Father called in a few minutes this forenoon. Was down to listen my music lesson this afternoon, went to mother Ransom's also to Bettie while she was coming.

Saturday

Went this morning, have been to Bettie & was there for a few minutes this forenoon, mother & I have made some frosted cake. It is a thick good cream this afternoon. Johnnie the wife came this afternoon she had brought them up from the depot. During this evening have been at home, no one else.

Sunday Jan 9th 1870

Very pleasant to day but the ground is covered with snow, went to the other house while this forenoon. Mother & I called on John & his wife this afternoon. The funeral of Benjamin Clifton was to day but none of us went to it. Spent the evening with Father, Johnnie & his wife were ^{there}.

Monday

I snowed to day, have been washing and ironing clothes but it began to snow & we had to take them in. have been to Mother's & A. this afternoon brought Lizzie's suitcase home to make up for the evening at home.

Tuesday

Very pleasant to day, have been working some on Lizzie's dress went to visit Hannah's while this forenoon, went down to take my lesson & after school and from the village with L. & Rebecca, called to Mother's & Emma's this afternoon, after supper went to visit them, & again from there to Father's & then home again.

Wednesday

Other foggy to day, the snow has nearly all disappeared. have been working some on Lizzie's dress also popping corn & washing some letters this forenoon. Father, John & his wife spent the afternoon & evening here, George Brown, Emma & Father were here this

Thursday Jan 18th

The weather about the same as yesterday. Mother & myself went with Ray down to the house this morning. I came home & went back to Aunt Hannah's & stayed until after dinner, came home & cut Loggia trees this afternoon. Went with David & Kellers to a party this evening. Stopped with Bertie & Emily.

Awful cold to day. Mary was up here while this forenoon, went to take my Pison. This afternoon called to mother & Aunt Abbie a few minutes. When I came back, mother & I went to make John's this evening.

Friday

A rain storm to day. John & his wife started back this morning. Have been at work on Loggia trees most of this afternoon to try it on her. But she was not at home. finished it this evening. No one in.

Saturday

It is a lovely day. Carried Loggia trees home this morning. Went up to see Bertie but she was not at home. Have been to Father's school this afternoon. Came home & commenced a letter to Father. Was in to Aunt Hannah's while this evening. From there I went to Bertie & spent the remainder of the evening.

Sunday

Cloudy this morning. We have been washing. Went to mother. A few minutes this afternoon. Then down to Aunt & Aunt Hannah's stayed at home this evening. No one in.
